REPAIR OUR HOMES OR WE WON'T PAY!

By CHRIS MOSS
chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

FURIOUS tenants living on the fire-ravaged Berecroft estate are threatening to withhold their rent until work to improve the safety of their homes starts.

Two devastating fires have now ripped through the estate in under 10 months, but work to address fire safety concerns raised in the wake of the first blaze in July 2009 has yet to begin.

South Anglia Housing Association – which owns the majority of properties on the estate – has pledged to begin upgrading homes in July of this year, but concerned residents have now produced a petition demanding immediate action.

The petition's author – who wished to remain anonymous – told the Star: "I am disgusted at South Anglia, who have done nothing to protect residents except send a letter out stating that there had been another fire.

"My petition is addressed directly to the housing association – it has an obligation to the residents of Berecroft and under legislation must make sure our homes are fit for purpose.

"But nothing has happened since the first fire in July 2009 and I am getting signatures from tenants who feel they have no alternative but to hold back rent payments until the problems are rectified."

Local councillor and Berecroft resident Lee Dangerfield pledged his "full support" for the petition.

"Residents living on this estate have a right to know that everything has been done to make their homes as safe as possible," he said.

"We haven't seen any real progress since last July's original fire – it's simply not good enough."

But Chris Ellison, Managing Director of South Anglia Housing, told the Star that improvement works could not be brought forward, as there was no "quick-fix" solution for all properties.

"We understand that some people may be frustrated that the improvement work cannot be done more quickly," he said.

"We have to work with residents to find the right solution for their property and do this properly – improvement work of this scale is not something that can be rushed through."

He added that an independent steering group made up of councillors – including Mr Dangerfield – residents and South Anglia staff had unanimously agreed to the original timetable of works.

"When the steering group last met, every member signed off on the timetable for this process proposed by the Independent Safety Specialists," he said.

"This is why the next stage of the timetable agreed by the steering group is for us to consult with residents on the Berecroft estate on the best solution.

"The consultation starts next week and we strongly encourage residents to take part in this so their views are reflected in the works that we take forward."

● Berecroft residents wanting to have their say on any of the issues surrounding the safety of their homes can attend a public meeting tomorrow (Friday) at 6.30pm at St James Primary School on Paringdon Road.

DORITO LOVE: Harlow film-maker George Kirby – with competition judges Noel Clarke and Lauren Laverne – is hoping his advert will be shown on the small screen

A HARLOW man has been shortlisted in a competition to make a 30-second advert for the crisp brand Doritos.

George Kirby's humorous homemade ad, which features a cat and dogs bonding over a shared love of the snack, has made the final 15 out of more than 3,000 entrants nationwide.

If he wins, he could scoop up to £200,000 and his entry will form the basis for a new advertising campaign for the maize-based snacks from next month.

The final three will be announced next Saturday after selection by panel of experts including TV presenter Lauren Laverne following pitches from the contestants.

The winner will then be selected in a public vote on the Doritos website.

"It was incredibly nerve racking presenting to Noel Clarke, Lauren Laverne and David Shane, but hopefully they liked my ad," said George, of Purford Green.

"I wanted to create an ad with that focused on a party atmosphere, but with a twist. "Seeing as you can never go wrong with cats and dogs, I decided to make them the focus of the party."

"It's still early days, but £200,000 would be really, really nice, fingers crossed I make the final three."

The competition was launched in February to find budding new directing talent. See George's ad at www.doritos.co.uk.

Man is charged with rape of pensioner

A MAN has been charged with raping a pensioner on a Harlow footpath.

David Catton (43), from Bishop's Stortford, appeared in court on Saturday.

A woman in her 70s was assaulted opposite the Maypole Sports Club, between London Road and Newhall, shortly before 11am last Tuesday.

Officers cordoned off a section of woodland beside the path as they searched the area, accompanied by forensics specialists.

Specially-trained detectives interviewed the victim, who police say was uninjured but "shaken and obviously distressed". Two days later, police arrested Mr Catton, a driver, at his Mayfield Park home.

He was questioned on Friday and appeared before Chelmsford magistrates the following morning on two charges of rape. He has been remanded to appear Chelmsford Crown Court on August 2.

The alleged rape took place less than a mile from Mark Hall secondary school and less than half-a-mile from Church Langley Primary School, in Church Langley Way.

Bus station plan to be parked up?

By CHRIS MOSS
chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

PLANS for the regeneration of Harlow Town Centre may have to go back to the drawing board if the owners of a key part of the site earmarked for redevelopment refuse to fall in with the proposals.

Just one week after developer and principal investor Stockland announced its shock withdrawal from the project, redevelopment partner Harlow Renaissance has admitted the current plans for the first phase of the scheme will have to be reconsidered should landowners Geminex Hotel & Leisure Management refuse to sell up.

The parcel of land in question – in Crown Gate – had been earmarked for transformation into the town's new bus interchange by 2013, but Geminex plans to build a new Holiday Inn hotel on the site.

Although the company was unable to provide a definitive completion date, a spokesman told the Star the firm was "progressing with the hotel development".

Derelict buildings on the site have been demolished and a sign erected on fencing states the new hotel is expected to open in Autumn 2010.

Andrew Brambridge, chief executive of Harlow Renaissance, told the Star: "The Holiday Inn/Geminex

BUS STOPPED? Building of a Holiday Inn hotel on a site planned as Harlow's new bus interchange is going ahead site is one of the sites which we are interested in acquiring as part of the overall redevelopment of Harlow Town Centre North.

"The development team has been discussing options for the purchase of this site with the owner, as well as progressing discussions with other landowners in the town centre to bring the scheme forward, and these talks are continuing."

He added: "Should the development of a hotel on this site commence, we will look to work this into our plans through further discussions with the relevant landowners and then adapt our proposals to take account of the hotel."

"This will not be a problem, as the delivery of a new hotel within the town is part of our aspirations for this scheme."

Lucky to be alive

SIR, When is an emergency delegated to a machine?

Try phoning Harlow Council to notify them that a central heating boiler in a block of flats is making a terrific noise and the pressure indicator is off the scale.

Recently, this system was used by a council resident. He was given an emergency number to call.

The emergency number immediately puts you onto a message recording machine, which in turn says 'sorry, machine is full up and can take no more messages'.

Back to the council: "I will put you direct to an engineer".

Engineer: "Have you tried the emergency number?"

Answer: "Yes, but I didn't get anywhere."

Engineer: "OK, I will send an engineer tomorrow." Surprise, 48 hours after first call, engineer turns up, looks at boiler, and says "I'm surprised you're still here" and adds "the boiler is a write-off and there is a gas leak as well. We will put in a new boiler next week".

It will be interesting to see how long a week is! One doesn't bear to think what the consequences could have been.

I would strongly recommend that any council resident should demand an annual service. The boiler in question had not been serviced for four years.

Let's not talk about getting The High rebuilt, let us make sure what we already have done that in property we keep.

Read the report . . .

SIR, Mr Fenny (Letters, May 13) tempers his congratulation for Harlow's new MP, Robert Halfon, by criticising him over his position on the proposed Harlow North development in East Herts.

Thanks and my first year promises to you

SIR, I would like to thank the many thousands of Harlow constituency residents who put their trust in me on election day.

I pay tribute to Bill Rammell for his many years of service to Harlow and his country. I wish him and his family well.

I would also like to congratulate all the new councillors who have been elected from all parties.

In my first year as MP, my priorities will be:

HOUSING. Getting the regeneration of our town centre back on track, so we can have more affordable housing.

JOBS. Support for extra apprenticeships in Harlow, and vocational education for young people.

CHARITIES. To champion our local community organisations.

TRAFFIC. To campaign vociferously for an extra bypass to the A414, and a new junction on the M11.

I will be holding regular surgeries around the town. Notice will be given via a phone number which residents can call.

The setting up of a Constituency Office will take a little time, but I will do my best to meet residents as soon as possible.

ROBERT HALFON MP
- working hard for Harlow,
Hastingwood, Matching, Nazeing &
Sheering
www.roberthalfon.blogspot.com

The Conservative party manifesto states: "We will abolish the entire bureaucratic and undemocratic tier of regional planning, including the Regional Spatial Strategies and building targets."

Last August, Caroline Spelman, then Shadow Minister for Communities and Local Government, also promised that the Conservatives would rapidly publish their draft policy changes and legislation which would have the status of 'emerging policy'.

Hence, even before primary legislation is passed, local authorities will have the ability to put the brakes on elements of Regional Spatial Strategies which they find undesirable. Conservative-led East Herts Council has twice in recent months reaffirmed its total opposition to major development north of Harlow.

The Liberal Democrat manifesto also states they would "return decision making, including housing targets, to local people" and their website says: "We will scrap the 'Westminster knows best' regional house building targets by allowing local authorities to determine how many and what types of houses are needed in their area"

Mr Halfon's position is entirely consistent with his party's manifesto.

Perhaps the Conservative and Liberal Democrat councillors on Harlow Council should explain their position in wanting to impose housing targets on another local authority

With the problems the council now has with the town centre redevelopment, all councillors would do well to re-read the independent inspector's report from the Examination in Public which rejected the idea of Harlow North citing, as one of the reasons, the danger that it would undermine the regeneration of the existing town.

Now we have a Conservative Liberal Democrat Government I am looking forward to the speedy abolition of the Regional Spatial Strategy and with it the proposals for Harlow North and the Green Belt review.

Nigel Clark
Secretary STOP Harlow North
High Street
Hunsdon

Arrogance defined

SIR, It is hard to believe how arrogant the Conservatives can be, accusing Gordon Brown of clinging on to power suggesting he is refusing to admit defeat when they know he cannot resign until there is an agreement between parties to form a government.

They themselves have lost the election by failing to achieve the 326 seats required, yet are claiming victory!

The fact is that all three parties are losers, so now we have a coalition of losers.

The biggest loser in my mind was David Cameron, who was a mile ahead in the polls not long ago and in the light of the biggest depression since the 1930s, two unfavourable wars, MPs' allowances and all but one of the national papers supporting them, he failed to achieve an outright majority.

We now wait to see if Nick Clegg does what is best for the country or if he does what is best for himself and the Liberal party.

The Liberals in their manifesto agreed with Labour the best thing for this country's economy would be to delay the cuts for one year to allow the economy to settle; whereas the Conservatives want to start the pain today, which both the Liberals and the Labour party have said would send us into a double-dip recession.

Here, in Harlow, as in the whole country, Labour lost, although Bill Rammell put up a great fight, he knocked on nearly every house personally.

I never saw any Tories knocking on my door – they seemed to concentrate on superstores and sitting behind a large billboard at the side of the road. What was obvious was the Nondom money when we saw huge Conservative billboards defacing private houses – they must have cost a fortune.

Robert Halfon will find it hard to fill the shoes of Bill Rammell who has been an excellent MP for Harlow over the last 13 years.

Resident's fury over state of park pond

HARLOW'S duck pond has been "left to rack and ruin" according to a resident who is calling on the council to clean it up.

The pool was once a beauty spot in the Town Park, but has now become overgrown with algae and moss, while a section of the pathway round the oasis has become unstable and boarded off to nature lovers.

Park Lane resident Katrina Ray said: "It was dredged a few years ago and it was refurbished with a new sculpture but since then it has been left to rack and ruin.

"I've grown up in Harlow and I've always used the park. I'm now fortunate to live in Park Lane, but I've seen it deteriorate over the years.

"The pond used to have workmen looking after it, but now it's absolutely vile and overgrown."

Katrina has in recent years has contacted former MP Bill Rammell and Harlow Council about the problem without success.

She was incensed by literature for the North Harlow development, which included old photos of the pond.

"These do not give an accurate impression of Harlow," she said. "The reality is that it's a mess."

Councillor Tony Hall, chairman of the council's environment & community committee, said: "The council is aware of the condition of the Water Gardens in the Town Park.

"Barley straw is going to be put into the pond shortly to help maintain water quality and prevent algae.

"There is an area which has been fenced off for health and safety reasons. This is due to water causing a spring to flow on the paved area.

"The council is looking to fund the installation of a drain to divert the water flow so the paved area can be used again.

"As part of the Town Park Masterplan, it is envisaged the whole Water Gardens will be revamped if a Heritage Lottery bid is successful."

Police scotch 'abduction gang' rumour

POLICE have scotched rumours that a gang of men have been attempting to abduct children from outside schools in Harlow.

Stories that three men have tried to bundle schoolchildren into cars have swept across the social networking website Facebook.

One posting by a worried Harlow resident read: "It's been confirmed there are three men trying to take children working together."

"One is a black man middle aged and the other two are white, one [is] old aged [with a] bald head and beard and the other has curly hair..."

"The cars to look out for are a black Ford Fiesta, a red Mondeo and a white van."

But a spokesman for Essex Police said the rumours, that had previously circulated other parts of the county, were "totally bogus".

He said the force has been inundated with calls from worried parents.

"We have issued a statement advising that these rumours were untrue," he said.

Spate of thefts from vehicles

VEHICLE owners in Sawbridgeworth are being reminded to properly secure their vehicles following a number of break-ins across the town.

Between Thursday May 13 and Saturday May 15, a number of cars were targeted in Vantorts Road, Forebury Avenue, Church Walk, Fair Green, Elmwood and Greenstead. Many of the vehicles had been left unlocked.

Offender(s) made off with a number of items including stereos, sat navs and sunglasses.

PC Paul Chapman from the Sawbridgeworth Safer Neighbourhood Team, said: "We're conducting several lines of enquiry but we would like to remind all drivers to spend a few extra seconds to ensure their vehicles are properly locked when they leaving them and to keep property out of sight."

Anyone with any information on the break-ins should contact the team on 0845 33 00 222, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

'Like living in a water cave'

FLUSHED: Stephen Clements in his damp-ridden bathroom

By DAN PHILLIPS
daniel.phillips@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A COUNCIL tenant said living in his damp flat has been like "living in a water cave" since a leak sprung in his Harlow tower block.

Stephen Clements (55), who has lived in his top floor flat in The Lawn for 10 years, has suffered from health issues since problems started two months ago.

He is desperate to move, but has slammed Harlow Council for only offering him a "like-for-like" property in the same building – which he believes to be similarly damp.

"I've always had problems with water ingress and it's always been damp," he said. "On March 9, my cooker stopped working, but I wasn't sure what had happened. It wasn't until the next day I saw there had been a major flood."

"The water was dripping through the electric cables. It's been like that since and my health is suffering."

"There is water all over the ceiling and the surveyor who came round said it should be condemned. It's like living in a water cave."

The leak was caused by the structural failure of the existing flat felt roof to the block, according to a letter from the council to Mr Clements.

Above his flat the overflow pipe from one of the large water tanks that supply water to the building was leaking onto the roof.

A surveyor for council contractor Kier has recommended that Mr Clements be re-housed while any remedial work is completed.

Mr Clements has suffered from a chest infection since the problems started and is now desperate to move.

A move has been agreed by a council housing manager, but last week, Mr Clements refused the offer of another flat in the same building.

"I've always had a problem with damp in the flat – the whole building is damp," he said. "It would just be taking one problem to another."

A council spokesman said: "Kier Harlow is addressing the problem with the roof, but this may take several months."

"In the meantime, a temporary repair is going to be carried out, which will stop the water ingress into the bathroom."

"The tenant has been offered a temporary move to like-for-like accommodation."

Firefighters' long service rewarded

DEDICATED: Ian Darrell with Baron Petre

TWO long-serving Harlow firefighters have been rewarded for their hard work, dedication and bravery.

Ian Darrell, from Old Harlow Fire Station, and Michael Harris, from Harlow Fire Station, were both handed long service and good conduct medals in recognition of 20 years' service to the community. They were among 14 firefighters who attended a special awards ceremony at Orsett Hall hosted by the Lord Lieutenant of Essex, Baron Petre. Chief Fire Officer David Johnson said: "Officers like Ian and Michael are the backbone of Essex County Fire and Rescue Service they serve with pride and dedication."

"They have given 20 years of exemplary service to the communities of Essex and in that time have developed a wealth of knowledge and experience which they can bring to bear in protecting and serving those communities."

Officers team up for charity game

HARLOW Police FC has set its sights on a charity football match against a celebrity 11 following the club's successful re-launch.

The celeb team already has confirmed Jade Goody's former boyfriend Jeff Brazier and former EastEnders Frankie Fitzgerald will be taking part.

Darren White and Duncan Pow, of Sky One's Dream Team, will also be playing, as well as a host of other famous faces yet to be confirmed.

The game will take place on Sunday, July 25, at Harlow Town FC's Barrows Farm Stadium with all the proceeds going to Child Victims of Crime and Variety Club children's charities.

Alongside the game, which kicks off at 3pm, there will be a host of other activities for all the family to enjoy.

The team was re-launched recently with a new red and blue strip and played their first game against the Harlow Referees Association.

The boys in blue (and red) versus the men in black on Thursday, May 6, was a re-match of last year's charity game.

The refs avenged their defeat in the first game with a late winner at the Bishop's Stortford FC's Woodside Park ground.

The game finished 5-4 despite two last-minute attempts to snatch an equaliser from the cops that were cleared off the line.

PC Graham Rendell's efforts in midfield and then in goal, after keeper PC Keith Flanagan was injured in the first half, won him man-of-the-match.

Player and assistant manager PCSO Stuart Burt said: "It's a great way of keeping fit whilst meeting members of the community having a friendly kick around" and added that when they play these games they often go for a drink after the game. People then see them in a different light and realise they are normal people just doing their jobs.

He said: "I would like to invite anyone to come along and watch us when the new season starts in September and the good news is it is absolutely free."

The club hopes to start playing every Sunday in the Harlow and District Football League from September if they are voted in at the league's annual general meeting in June.

Stuart said: "Even though Harlow Police FC will be playing in the league we will continue to play matches for charity helping good causes.

"Our aim is to play and enjoy our football within our community and meet new friends."

● Tickets for the event will be available on the gate with all proceeds going to charity.

Men in the pink

BODY builders and fitness fanatics at a Harlow gym have been lifting pounds of a different kind for charity.

Around 20 men at Body Active trained wearing Breast Cancer Research UK T-shirts displaying the charity's pink ribbon.

They paid around £7.50 each at the gym near Harlow Mill to wear the T-shirt and then raised further cash in sponsorship – although the full amount has not yet been collected.

The idea was the brainchild of gym user Lesley Clark Mahoney from High Wych. She said: "A few years ago I organised a charity run for prostate cancer and 95 per cent of the people who took part were women so I thought this time I would turn it around.

"There are a lot of men who use the gym so I thought I'd get them raising cash for breast cancer."

Special night

SENSATIONAL singers such as Laura Jay and Diverse Divas will be performing for a special charity night in Harlow later this year.

With more acts to be confirmed and a disco, food and a charity raffle, the night at the Fairways in Parsloe Road promises to be a special evening.

The night on Friday, October 8, at 7.30pm is in aid of St Claire Hospice. Tickets are £10. For information contact Joseph Dunham on 07951 097 465.

Free workshop

RAINBOW Services in Harlow are running a free workshop on current Lottery funding programmes on Tuesday, May 25.

The evening from 7pm at the Rainbow Centre in Wych Elm is open to all voluntary and community groups.

Groups should call (01992) 564515 to book.

Did you see assault outside nightclub on Saturday night?

DETECTIVES are appealing for witnesses to a violent assault outside a Harlow nightclub.

The attack happened on Saturday May 8 at 1.50am when an 18-year-old man accidentally bumped into the suspect.

The suspect grabbed the victim and head-butted him in the face leaving a small cut to the victim's left eye.

The attacker is described as a slimly-built white man in his late teens. He had short dark hair and was wearing a black jacket. The suspect was with a white woman with light brown to blonde shoulder-length curly hair.

Investigating officer, PC James Carter, said: "On the evening, an unknown woman gave police the name of a possible suspect, however, she did not leave any contact details and I would be grateful if she would come forward."

Anyone with any information in connection with this assault should contact PC Carter at Harlow police station on 0300 333 4444.

Man (57) suffers serious head injuries in attack

A MAN has been arrested after another man was found with a serious head injury in Harlow on Thursday.

The 57-year-old male victim from the Harlow area was found in The Hides in the afternoon before being taken to hospital. He has since been transferred to Queens Hospital in Romford, where he was said by police to be "sedated, but stable".

A 21-year-old man was arrested and questioned by police and then bailed until June. Detectives investigating the incident want to speak to anyone who remembers seeing the victim in the area around 2pm.

Assistant DI Steve Ellis said: "We are keeping an open mind at this time about the circumstances and urge anyone with information to come forward."

'Teenage crimewave' locked up for a year

CAUGHT: Rory Brytz

A ONE-MAN crimewave who terrorised his neighbourhood in Harlow before moving to Suffolk and "wrecking half-a-dozen Christmases" has been sent to a Young Offenders' Institute for 12 months.

Rory Brytz (18), formerly of Tany's Dell but now living in Sudbury, was already subject to an anti-social behaviour order (ASBO) imposed by Harlow magistrates when he raided properties in Suffolk.

At Ipswich Crown Court on Thursday, he admitted six offences of breaking into homes in the Great Cornard area of Suffolk between November 24 and December 18 last year.

He stole property worth more than £10,000 including Nintendo and X-Box games consoles, laptops and parts of a Manchester United football kit.

James Howard, mitigating, said: "He had no means of support, literally hanging around with unsavoury characters all egging one another one at a loss what to do."

"He smoked cannabis all day, every day – a £30-a-day habit – and moved to be with his father in Suffolk so he could get away from the Harlow area. But he continued to smoke cannabis."

Judge David Goodin sentenced Brytz to 12 months in a young offenders' institute, telling the defendant: "Your greed and dishonesty wrecked half-a-dozen Christmases without any real benefit to you."

Earlier this month, Brytz protested his human rights had been breached over the imposition of the ASBO – but his claim was dismissed by Judge Roger Hayward-Smith at Chelmsford Crown Court.

The judge was told there had been a year-long campaign of trouble by a gang of youths, led by Brytz, called HTH, or the Harlow Town Hooligans.

Following the imposition of the ASBO, the court heard that Brytz went to Sudbury to live with his father, where he embarked on a one-man crimewave.

He also admitted burgling a house in Ladyshot on November 5 last year, stealing a television, laptop and jewellery worth £800.

Harlow magistrates had made the ASBO after a year-long campaign of hell-raising and harassment in the local community.

New heights for runner!

A SWEDISH extreme sports enthusiast has brought the house down after setting a new world record – for sprinting down the side of a building!

Tony Berglund (47) is hoping to have his record confirmed by Guinness World Records officials after shaving over a second off the previous vertical running record by hurtling down a skyscraper in central Vasteras in just 34.76 seconds.

To make the attempt possible, the skyscraper had to be temporarily extended by 20m – making it the third tallest building in Sweden for a day.

Tony was attached to an abseiling harness and ran down the building, using a special device to stop the fast-moving rope from melting.

The technique he used – known as house running – is adapted from a style of rock climbing which gets climbers down quickly in emergencies.

"This is a once-in-a-lifetime achievement, especially because we had to postpone the attempt one day due to heavy winds," Berglund told reporters.

"I was confident I could beat the record and everything worked out just as planned. "I defeated the forces of nature and my own fears."

From the Star 25 years ago

Strike hits 1,000

Strike action by the National Union of Teachers hit more than 1,000 Harlow pupils but those sitting CSE exams were not affected. Spinney Junior School closed completely while Mark Hall turned away three quarters of pupils.

Soccer stand 'safe'

Following the horrific fire at Bradford City FC, the Sportcentre management has reassured football fans that the club's grandstand is completely safe. The death toll reached 52 when Bradford's wooden stand was engulfed in fire.

Pup home again

A lost Great Dane puppy was found asleep in the Town Park after four days away from home. The 6-month-old Kasarala was found in a pile of leaves by a parkkeeper before being returned to his 4-year-old master Timothy Russell.

British Bobbies?

Harlow police may be biking British in future as officers decide whether to swap their German BMW motorbikes for Norton 600s. They are currently test driving the English bikes.

So much change in such a short history

THOSE with long memories won't need telling how much Harlow has changed over the years.

Unlike some more historic towns nearby, the New Town has emerged fast since its post Second World War birth in the Essex countryside.

Progress has been swift, expansion exciting and its buildings bigger and bolder than any of its fuddy-duddy neighbouring towns.

By DAN PHILLIPS
daniel.phillips@hertsessexnews.co.uk

None of those conurbations, whose more elderly residents' inside leg measurements were probably recorded in the Domesday Book, have as many large shops as the New Town. Have a look back to 1986 and see the construction of the building on Harvey Centre Approach between Broad Walk and Terminus Street. Once built, it became home to high street favourites Boots and C&A until unfortunately the latter business crumbled. It is now New Look.

These pictures were taken by GWC Taylor, of Rectory Field, Harlow, and shown to Nostalgia by local historian Ron Bill.

The first image was taken in March 1986, showing the old town hall on the left in the days before the Water Gardens shopping centre.

And the second was taken in July that year and shows a hive of activity on the site with construction well underway.

NOSTALGIA UPDATE: Harlow country music festival

MEMORIES of Harlow's chicken pickin' past came to life for one Nostalgia reader when we revisited Harlow's country music festival.

Dave Ingold, of Watersmeet, Harlow, read with interest our recent article regarding the event which used to take place in the Town Park.

"I was involved with the event for quite a few of its years as stage manager and in answer to the question 'why did they stop it the festival?' it was at that time paid for by Harlow Council and became the victim of council cutbacks," he said.

"In its time, it was recognised as the biggest and best country music festival in the UK and paved the way for many of the country events that are taking place today."

He said it was not the last for the festival as it was revived in 2002 in a smaller form.

"It is now put on jointly by the Great Parndon Community Centre and me on behalf of The Harlow Country Music Centre," he said.

"It is still completely free and features six bands, disco, stalls, food outlets and a licensed bar. It is still a colourful event – as it was all those years ago."

This year's festival takes place at the bandstand in the Town Park on Sunday August 8 and details can be obtained from the Great Parndon Community Association on (01279) 414081.

Preparing to think PINK!

STAFF at Harlow College are ready to paint the town pink for charity after signing up for next month's St Clare Hospice Midnight Walk.

Work stopped in the college's beauty department reception for a while on Tuesday while the team tried on their pink T-shirts and the now famous flashing bunny ears in preparation for the Star-backed event on June 19.

A team spokeswoman told the Star: "We've all been touched by cancer – a colleague currently has it, a colleague's father died five years ago and even one of our own team has had the disease."

"We took part in another event last year and then we saw the Midnight Walk coverage a few weeks later and thought we wished we'd signed up to that one instead – this year we have!"

The walk will start at 10.30pm in the Water Gardens before following footpaths and cycle tracks around the town.

Last year's event saw more than 1,600 people take part, transforming the 10k route into a sea of pink.

Entertainment on stage will start at around 8pm, with music and games, and the warm-up being led by Harlow Sport Centre at around 10.15pm.

Event organiser Tracy Stratford said: "We are getting hundreds of entries flying in now, but there's not long left to sign up so anyone with a form needs to get it filled in and back to us as quickly as possible."

"The money raised will help us provide care free of charge to more than 600 patients and their families this year.

"It costs around £3,000 a week per patient staying at the hospice, but is worth so much more to their family and friends."

"Please do sign up and help us raise the much needed funds, to keep on caring."

Sign up online at www.stclare-hospice.org.uk and click on the pink Midnight Walk box on the home page or call (01279) 773750 for a registration form.

HEALTH CHECK Focusing on local health issues in partnership with Princess Alexandra Hospital

Pints delivered on early morning round

They are the people who help make Princess Alexandra Hospital tick.

A new early-morning blood tests service run at Princess Alexandra Hospital is proving a hit with patients.

The phlebotomy service at the hospital now opens its doors at 7am on weekdays to accommodate people heading off for work.

Phlebotomy Manager, Barbara Hammond, said: "After talking with a number of patients who were queuing up for their blood tests in outpatients, I found that a number of them were in a hurry as they would lose money for being late for work.

"I talked it through with the team and we now have two phlebotomists running our 'early bird' service at PAH.

"We started the service a couple of weeks ago and more than 20 people are now attending between 7am and 8am.

"I would like to stress that this service really is for people who need to get away to work and would ask other patients to come along after 9am."

Steve Tucker, the Blood Transfusion lead at the hospital, said: "The blood tests centre at any hospital is often one of the busiest areas and people do sometimes have to wait. This is a great initiative, as it helps patients who need a blood test and then to get off to work."

Don't be a clot – keep a look out for the signs

OUR blood and circulatory system is vitally important to us all and yet most of us take it for granted – until something goes wrong. And what goes wrong is when something puts a block on the system.

Blood clots, called thrombosis by doctors, can form at any time and have serious consequences. Minor blood clots in veins can cause:
Pain, swelling and redness;
A heavy ache in affected area;

An itchy skin rash;
Heated skin near the clot area;
Prominent veins that stand out from your skin;
A mild fever.
A deep vein thrombosis (DVT) is where you have a blood clot in one of the deep veins normally in the leg. As well as the above symptoms, you may also have:

Pain, tenderness and swelling (often in the calf area);
A pale blue or reddish purple tinge to the skin of the leg; DVT can be extremely serious, as the clot can break away and move in your blood system to become lodged in one of your lungs causing a pulmonary embolism, which is life-threatening.

Be prepared to recognise signs of stroke

Stroke has rapidly grown in people's minds to be equal to heart attack as a risk to life and wellbeing.

A stroke happens when the blood supply to a part of the brain is cut off causing either: A blockage - called an ischaemic stroke; or A bleed - called a haemorrhagic stroke.

The first signs that someone has had a stroke are very sudden, with symptoms including numbness, weakness or paralysis on one side of the body; slurred speech or difficulty finding the right words; difficulty swallowing; confusion or unsteadiness; a severe headache.

Sometimes these symptoms go away after a few minutes or hours. This means the individual may have had a transient ischaemic attack (TIA) or mini-stroke. If this happens, the person should contact their GP immediately or go to hospital.

A stroke can happen with no obvious cause to people of any age, but there are a number of factors which increase the likelihood of it happening.

Some of these factors are out of our control whilst there are others we can do something about.

What cannot be changed are:

Your sex – more men have stroke than women under the age of 75.

Your age – strokes are more common in people over the age of 55 and the risk increase with age as arteries harden or become furred up by cholesterol.

Your family history – having a close relative who has had a stroke increases the risk.

Your ethnic background – people from Asian and Afro-Caribbean communities are at a greater risk of a stroke.

Medical conditions, such as high blood pressure, heart disease and diabetes, can contribute to increasing the risk but medical treatment can control these conditions.

What we can do to help ourselves:

Improve your diet and cut out too much salt with your food.

Stop drinking too much alcohol.

Take more exercise.

Stop smoking.

People suffering from a stroke should receive prompt emergency treatment as quickly as possible. Patients coming to the accident and emergency department at Princess Alexandra Hospital are assessed by doctors and receive a scan to assess the severity of the stroke.

Once stabilised, they are transferred to the acute stroke unit at the hospital where a multi-skilled team provides treatment for the initial stroke and begins the intensive rehabilitation programme.

Stoke Association on www.stroke.org.uk
Also look out for local blood pressure testing events in your area run by the Rotary Clubs of Great Britain.

Are you expecting? Get baby checked out as soon as you can

THE West Essex Primary Care Trust is working with Princess Alexandra Hospital to urge local women who discover they are pregnant to book early for screening tests. Screening Coordinator Midwife at the hospital, Tina ten Hove said: "The National Screening Committee advocates that all women are offered screening tests in early pregnancy and that the gold standard is a combination of scanning and blood tests performed within a short timeframe, ideally before the end of the first trimester – up to 12 weeks – of pregnancy.

- Down's syndrome.
- Infectious diseases such as Hepatitis B.
- Sickle cell.

"The midwife will help the pregnant woman make an informed choice about which tests to have.

"It is important that the tests take place at a certain time in order to get the best and earliest indication of potential problems.

"The earliest these are picked, the more chance there is that they can be treated more effectively."

Alison Cowie, Director of Public Health for NHS West Essex, said: "I am really pleased at the efforts the Princess Alexandra Hospital midwifery team are making to encourage women to book into their service as early as possible.

"These tests during pregnancy are really important and can ensure the best possible care for baby and parents, whatever the outcome of the tests."

The direct midwives' line is 01279 827918. Women can also contact their GP who can refer women on to the PAH midwifery team.

New MP backs pact

NEW BOY: Robert Halfon MP

By DAN PHILLIPS
daniel.phillips@hertssexnews.co.uk

NEW Harlow MP Robert Halfon
has told the Star that the new Liberal-Conservative coalition
Government will be a good thing for the town – despite initial reservations.

And he said he agrees with the Liberal Democrat policy to raise the income tax threshold to £10,000, which has been adopted by the alliance.

"As someone who is a passionate Conservative, I was asking 'how is it going to work?'" said Mr Halfon. "Now I think it will work."

"One Lib Dem policy that I happen to agree with which wasn't a Conservative policy before the election is raising the tax threshold."

"There will be some things that I believe in that will be dropped, but that is the nature of a coalition."

"I will continue to fight within the party to bring about the policies that I was elected on."

He added: "Of the emails I have received from constituents who are not party activists, they want the coalition and like it."

"The country desperately needs a stable government and not a minority government, which would probably mean another election in two months."

Mr Halfon said he had not been hoping for any of the Cabinet jobs that went to his new Lib Dem colleagues, claiming his focus will be constituency work once he has found a new office.

"The God's-honest truth is that for 10 years, I have wanted to be MP for Harlow and that's all I want," he said.

"I am very happy where I am and I have got a lot of work and learning to do – including lots and lots of casework, which I will be trying to do as quickly as possible."

On Tuesday, Mr Halfon turned up an hour early for his first sitting in the House of Commons, where speaker John Bercow was re-elected.

"It's an incredible place – the greatest parliament in the world," he said.

"No other parliament does it the same way. It was a spine-tingling moment."

Writers couple up for script full of laughs

WIFE-SWAPPING, mouldy semolina pudding, home-brewed wine and knicker factories – just some of the ingredients set to spice up a hilarious new play opening at The Playhouse tonight. (Thursday).

Co-written by Johnnie Mortimer and Brian Cooke, the scriptwriters behind '70s TV sitcoms Man About The House and George And Mildred, Situation Comedy is a broad and risqué play that will amuse and delight all lovers of quickfire comedy and will be brought to life by Harlow's masters of comic theatre, Global Theatre Company.

The play centres on two married couples and long-time friends: two wives – one who can't cook, the other one no good in bed, and two husbands – one good-looking and witty, the other one dull and cloddish.

The men are employed as television scriptwriters, but can they put their differences and marital strife behind them and keep their contract by coming up with a script for a new television sitcom?

Making matters worse, during an unfortunate evening of homemade wine-tasting, they both somehow manage to end up in bed with the wrong wives, while their agent returns from Hollywood demanding to see the first drafts of their next big hit.

Bursting with quick-fire wit, a solid cast, great pace and hilarious set-pieces promise to make the play a great night out for all lovers of classic comedy.

The play runs until Saturday, with performances beginning at 7.45pm each night.

Tickets can be bought from the Playhouse box office on (01279) 431945 or online at www.playhouseharlow.com.

Playhouse prepares for upcoming season

AN exciting new programme of entertainment awaits theatre-goers as the Harlow Playhouse prepares for its Summer/Winter season. Kicking off on May 31 with When Harry Met Sally starring Coronation Street's Rupert Hill and Sarah Jayne Dunn from Hollyoaks, this hilarious romantic comedy has been faithfully adapted from the Oscar-winning film and features a stunning soundtrack by jazz sensation Jamie Cullum and his brother Ben.

The drama continues when Michael Frayn's hilarious West End and Broadway hit Noises Off is brought to the Playhouse by the award-winning Global Theatre Productions from September 16-18. The show charts the on/off stage antics of a touring theatre company and is a fantastic comic romp.

Comedy @ The Playhouse is a new series of stand-up shows, bringing some of the most outstanding, entertaining and edgy comedians to the venue including Julian Clary on October 6, Felix Dexter on October 14, Australian comic Jim Jeffries – who has starred in his own HBO Comedy Special – on October 31 and Joe Pasquale on November 11. Other highlights include aerial theatre company Ockham's Razor on September 22, Hit Me! – The Life and Rhymes of Ian Dury on October 17, Elkie Brooks on November 4, a return for the acclaimed Actors of Dionysus on November 5, and the West End musicals show Beyond The Barricade on November 7. In addition, the Playhouse will be holding an Open Doors Day on September 12, featuring demonstrations, free entertainment, tours, exhibitions and more. The season then culminates in typically spectacular fashion with one of the most thrilling pantomimes of them all – Aladdin. From the same team that produced last year's record-breaking panto Cinderella, this magical story of a boy, a princess, a genie and a lamp promises to be the Playhouse's most entertaining panto yet. Full cast details will be announced soon.

what's on in and around Harlow this week

COMEDY: The Playhouse hosts an evening with one of Britain's best-loved TV personalities tomorrow (Friday) when Bradley Walsh cuts loose with his own unique brand of stand-up comedy. Best known for playing Danny Baldwin in Coronation Street, Bradley also won acclaim for his role in Law & Order UK and has hosted a number of TV quiz shows. The show starts at 8pm and tickets cost £22 (£19.50 concessions) from (01279) 431945.

KIDS: Join children's author Steven Lee and a host of wild and wonderful characters from his charming short story How The Koala Learnt To Hug for a fun-packed show at The Playhouse on Saturday.

Featuring tall tales, superb sing-alongs, great games and, of course, some huge hugs, the show starts at 2.30pm and tickets cost £6 from (01279) 431945.

MUSIC: A dream team of top jazz legends will get the joint jumpin' at St John's ARC in Old Harlow on Thursday (May 27).

Drummer John Petters will be joined by clarinetist and saxophonist John Crocker, pianist JJ Vinten and bass ace Keith Donald for an explosive evening of vintage swing.

The performance starts at 8pm and tickets cost £10 from 0800 496 0673.

>>what's on at the square

>>TONIGHT This week's incoming batch of improbably-named bright young upstarts includes The Sly-Tones, Don Von Sleaze, Baghdad Country Club and Angry Boy. Doors are at 8pm and tickets cost £4 (free for members).

>>FRIDAY Punk legends Sham 69 bring the sounds of the suburbs to the venue with a gloriously chaotic set of three-chord wonders. Support comes from Long Tall Shorty and The Anoraks, doors are at 8pm and tickets cost £11 (£10 members).

>>SATURDAY Stortford's Blub Promotions return to The Square bearing gifts this evening, with promising Manc motormouths Twisted Wheel. Doors are at 8pm and tickets cost £8 (£7 members).

Video game turns into a right royal film romp

new this week

PRINCE OF PERSIA: THE SANDS OF TIME
certificate 12A 1h 55m

INSPIRED by the best-selling video game series, Prince Of Persia: The Sands Of Time is a rollicking escapade which marries gorgeous Moroccan locations with state-of-the-art visual effects.

The time-bending storyline of Mike Newell's big-budget adventure incorporates a romantic subplot to appeal to female audiences who might otherwise give this testosterone-heavy romp a wide berth.

The casting of a buffed up Jake Gyllenhaal in the lead role will also prove a draw as the Oscar-nominated star of Brokeback Mountain casts aside his indie credentials to throw himself into the melee of mindless popcorn fodder. Physically, he is more than a match for any protracted fight sequence in Boaz Yakin, Doug Miro and Carlo Bernard's predictable script and he nails the British accent of his gung-ho hero.

However, there's no emotional content and the flirtation with ballsy co-star Gemma Arterton remains suitably chaste so that his dashing saviour doesn't soften his macho hunk image.

A brief prologue establishes the lineage of King Sharaman (Ronald Pickup) with a visit to a Persian marketplace, where the monarch picks a street urchin called Dastan to become his surrogate son.

"A son with no royal blood and no eye on his throne," booms the voiceover.

Fifteen years later, rugged Dastan (Gyllenhaal) joins his brothers Tus (Richard Coyle) and Garsiv (Toby Kebbell) as they head for a fortress controlled by Princess Tamina (Arterton), which is rumoured to be the source of weapons for the King's enemies.

During the assault on the city defences, Dastan unwittingly acquires a mythical dagger – a powerful gift from the Gods which allows the holder to reverse the flow of time. He is then framed for the murder of his beloved father and forced to flee for his life with Tamina.

Spurred on by their nefarious uncle Nizam (Sir Ben Kingsley), Tus and jealous sibling Garsiv vow to slay Dastan in revenge for their father's murder. Meanwhile, the outlaws encounter ostrich racing supremo Amar (Alfred Molina) and realise that the only way to unmask the real killer is to manipulate the dagger and turn back time.

Prince Of Persia: The Sands Of Time would be much more fun as an interactive experience, with the ability to control Dastan as he leaps and somersaults through each interlude.

All singing and dancing in 3D

STREET DANCE 3D
certificate PG 1h 38m

T-REX were right, the British love to boogie and not just on a Saturday night.

For the past two years, the winners of the top-rated ITV1 series Britain's Got Talent have been dance acts George Sampson and Diversity respectively.

BBC One and Sky1 have wooed viewers with rival shows So You Think You Can Dance and Just Dance in addition to old stalwart Strictly Come Dancing and cinema audiences have got their groove on to Step Up, Stamp The Yard, Make It Happen and Fame.

Directors Max Giwa and Dania Pasquini celebrate the inventiveness of UK street dance in the first live action feature film to be shot entirely in 3D outside of America.

The filmmakers contrive a couple of nice moments with dancers appearing to throw hats at the audience, forcing us to duck for cover.

However, for the most part, the 3D is redundant and there is little reason to pay a ticket premium to see the film in the eye-popping format.

The painfully simplistic storyline centres on talented street dancer Carly (Nichola Burley), who is head-over-heels in love with boyfriend Jay (Ukweli Roach).

He is the creative energy behind a crew which includes Carly's loud mouth best friend Shawna (Teneisha Bonner), plus Frankie (Bradley Charles), Steph (Steph Nguyen) Aimee (Sacha Chang) and Boogie (Lex Milczarek).

still showing

ROBIN HOOD:

Fearless archer Robin Longstride (Russell Crowe) and his friends Little John (Kevin Durand), Will Scarlet (Scott Grimes) and Allan A'Dayle (Alan Doyle) head back to England after Richard The Lionheart (Danny Huston) is slain on the battlefield by the besieged French.

A NIGHTMARE ON ELM STREET: "One, two, Freddy's coming for you... Three, four, better lock your door..."

In 1984, writer-director Wes Craven unleashed one of cinema's most iconic and dearly beloved boogiemers: Freddy Krueger.

FURRY VENGEANCE: Cute and cuddly woodland creatures including squirrels, deer, mice and groundhogs are revolting against the real estate developers.

HOT TUB TIME MACHINE: The 1980s was the decade that fashion sense forgot - seeing people sport a riotous explosion of lurid colours, bouffant hair and leg warmers.

Director Steve Pink basks in the glow of nostalgia with a raunchy buddy comedy.

IRON MAN 2:

Billionaire industrialist Tony Stark (Robert Downey Jr) announces he is Iron Man. He single-handedly maintains world peace to the chagrin of the US government and private investors.

HOW TO TRAIN YOUR DRAGON 3D:

Invention and emotion in abundance, and will delight audiences of all ages with its lush visuals.

kids club

FANTASTIC MR FOX:

Mr Fox (voiced by George Clooney) is never content with his life, always looking to move up in the world with long-suffering wife, Mrs Fox (Meryl Streep).

He plots a daring raid on the chicken coop only to get caught in a trap.

ASTRO BOY: The iconic figure of Astro Boy takes flight in a new computer-animated adventure directed by David Bowers, with a storyline that puts a futuristic spin on the classic tale of Pinocchio.

Home would be ideal for commuter

Home of the week

Location: Markwell Wood, Harlow
Category: Three bedroom, end-of-terrace property
Additional: Garage and two-berth driveway
Guide price: £215,000
Agent: Bairstow Eves, 40 High Street, Harlow. Telephone: (01279) 626117

OFFERED for sale is this newly-instructed, well-presented, three-bedroom end-of-terrace property situated in the popular area of Markwell Wood, complete with garage and two-berth driveway. The property benefits from a locale on the cusp of Epping Green, affording the property ease of access to both Epping and Harlow, making it an ideal commuter purchase. Accommodation is provided with double glazing throughout, gas central heating, as well as white goods including a fridge-freezer, oven, hob and washing machine. In addition to benefiting from spacious and well-presented living space, the property boasts an extremely well-landscaped garden, not overlooked, giving a heightened sense of security and seclusion; ideal for a family which considers safety paramount. Additionally, the vendors have advised that they have recently found a vacant property they wish to move to and can therefore facilitate a quick sale on their home if required.

ASX aims beyond niche market

With competitive equipment levels and relaxed driving position, Mitsubishi ASX offers more than sufficient responsiveness and roadholding for a family vehicle. RICHARD M HAMMOND takes it for a spin

MITSUBISHI'S visibility is phenomenal. For a manufacturer with a limited presence in the UK, its vehicles have huge presence on the road. The distinctive trait of a huge, aggressive grille means that, across the range, Mitsubishi's passenger cars can be recognised from some distance.

Looking good is one thing – however, performing well is quite another. With the likes of the Lancer Evolution X on its books and as experts in four-wheel drive, no-one could accuse the company of building technically under-performing models. However, the Japanese manufacturer leans towards niches.

Not so with its newest venture. As Mitsubishi puts it: "The ASX is the right car at the right time."

Operating in the fastest-growing segment in Europe, one blown wide open with the arrival of the Nissan Qashqai and that is seeing retail sales grow 30 per cent year-on-year, the ASX is by no means in a niche.

FACT file

Mitsubishi
ASX 3
1.8 Diesel

from £18,549

ENGINE	1.8-litre turbocharged petrol unit developing 148bhp
TRANSMISSION	6-speed manual driving front wheels
PERFORMANCE	0-62mph 9.7s / top speed 124mph
ECONOMY	51.4mpg
CO<sub>2</sub> EMISSIONS	145g/km

That leaves Mitsubishi with a dilemma: how to target a larger market without losing the character that adds to its model's appeal. The answer lies partly in the styling.

The ASX – it stands for Active Sports Crossover – uses the "Jet Fighter" grille, sloping bonnet profile and angular front light units to great effect. The flared arches and sweeping line along the profile to the rear lights help give it a more insistent presence that contrasts with the family friendly faces of the opposition.

Of course, this being a crossover model, the opposition is hard to pin down. Clearly, Nissan's Qashqai is the most obvious competitor; Hyundai's ix35, the Peugeot 3008 and Ford Kuga are similar crossover propositions. But manufacturers love crossovers because they reach across segments. Drivers of regular C-segment hatchbacks and larger SUVs can all find what they're looking for within the segment and, Mitsubishi hopes, within the ASX.

Two- and four-wheel drive plus three trim levels offers a decent degree of choice, but the option of a single diesel, followed, after the initial launch, by a single petrol unit seems a little restrictive at first. Fortunately this isn't the case. With a stop-start system present across the range, a small engine line-up can deliver both the economy and performance required.

The 1.8-litre turbocharged diesel unit offers a respectable 148bhp and 221lb/ft of torque, with CO<sub>2</sub> emissions pegged at 145g/km for the two-wheel drive platform that the company expects to be vastly more popular than the four-wheel drive variant, with 150g/km emissions. Performance from the 1.6-litre, 115bhp petrol is less brisk, but emissions are 135g/km – a better performance against its equivalent competitors than the diesel.

On the road, the diesel doesn't lag behind its rivals. Part of Mitsubishi's plan to maximise potential from its existing equipment, the ASX uses a version of the same platform employed in other Mitsubishi models. If it's good enough for the crisp handling Lancer Evolution X and rugged enough for the Outlander SUV then it ought to suffice in the smaller, considerably less sporty ASX. True to its word, the model rides very comfortably and competently, while offering more than sufficient responsiveness and roadholding for a family vehicle.

There's more body roll than in some of the ASX's direct rivals, but not enough to detract from the driving experience and the weighty steering is direct and rewarding. Refinement is impressive, too. There's some wind noise, but the diesel unit remains hushed with the exception of some turbo whistle.

The driving experience is relaxed and undemanding. A good driving position and decent visibility help. Large mirrors offer an excellent rearward view, the interior dials are sharp, colourful and neatly presented and in the dark a new headlight design throws an impressively clear beam across a wide angle.

Equipment levels are competitive, with the option of a full-length glass roof and the top-spec model receiving sat-nav and a reversing camera. The middle trim will suffice happily, however, with cruise, heated seats, Bluetooth, auto lights and wipers and an engine start button. Even the base car gets alloy wheels, air-con and ESP.

Most noticeable inside, however, is the space. The ASX feels very roomy. Front passengers will certainly not rub elbows, headroom is good and rear legroom impressive. The boot door is also wide, offering easy access to the well-proportioned boot space.

The ASX comfortably retains the Mitsubishi brand identity, but it projects it to a much wider audience. As it says, "it's the right car at the right time" and deserves to do well.

Scrap

End of the road
for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).
A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

BERR

End of the road? Get over it and move on with your local ATF:

B & T Motor Salvage

We offer free collection, on the same day if necessary, using our own recovery vehicles and issue a Certificate of Destruction from the Department of Vehicle Licensing Authority via our direct link to their website. Payment per vehicle negotiable.

Epping Forest district is an area of great contrasts, from its southern boundary with Greater London, stretching northwards into the heart of rural Essex. Here, you'll find scope to further your career in a variety of different roles, each offering the rewards you'd expect from an organisation that values its people and their contribution.

To find out more about our range of jobs and benefits, go to www.eppingforestdc.gov.uk/jobs

HOUSING OFFICER (FRAUD)

Ref: HNO/16T

Part-Time (22½ hours per week – days and times to suit)

Temporary – One year contract. Possibly followed by a permanent contract

Salary: £19,126 - £20,858 (increased to £21,519 after five years' service) pro rata per annum, plus £798 Inner Fringe Allowance pro rata per annum and Essential Car User Allowance

We are launching a new initiative to combat Social Housing Fraud – initially for one year, but with the possibility of making it permanent on review. Social Housing Fraud includes tenants illegally subletting their properties, and fraudulent applications for housing, homelessness assistance, the Right to Buy and mutual exchanges.

This new post, based at our modern Civic Offices in the market town of Epping – and reporting to the Area Housing Manager (North), will establish new initiatives, techniques and systems to pro-actively identify potential cases of social housing fraud, including the introduction and operation of a Reward Scheme for tip-offs. Once identified, you will then investigate all potential cases of Social Housing Fraud and take the appropriate legal action – including seeking the re-possession of Council properties and the prosecution of offenders.

We are flexible on the days and times that you would work, to fit in with your domestic arrangements, and you would also be eligible for our generous flexi-time scheme. You would need to have the use of a car.

Ideally, you would have experience or an understanding of housing management in a local authority or housing association and/or experience of undertaking fraud investigations (e.g. benefits or audit).

Closing date: Noon, Friday 4th June 2010.

Our preferred option is for candidates to apply online.

Please visit our website to apply online and view all our current vacancies at: www.eppingforestdc.gov.uk/jobs

Alternatively, for an application pack please contact Human Resources, Epping Forest District Council, Civic Offices, 323 High Street, Epping, Essex CM16 4BZ. Tel: 01992 564433 (24 hour answer service) (No CVs please).

Working towards equal opportunities.

SCHOOL COUNSELLOR Part Time

12 Hours per week (School Term Time Only)

Haileybury, a successful, progressive co-educational independent boarding school situated in Hertfordshire, is looking to recruit a qualified and experienced Counsellor who can make a significant contribution to the school's pastoral provision.

At Haileybury, high quality pastoral care is an essential part of our school ethos and we believe that every pupil should be able to succeed and be happy. We recognise that some pupils need extra support to achieve these outcomes.

The job holder will be required to see pupils and staff on a one to one basis or in small groups and to support the pastoral work of the Housemasters and Housemistresses. He/she will also be required to promote the Counselling service through a range of strategies e.g. group talks and presentations.

The successful candidate will hold a Counselling qualification recognised by the BACP and be BACP and/or UKCP accredited. They will also have enthusiasm for and will have had considerable experience working with children and young people of both genders, preferably within an educational setting. In addition, they will have an excellent understanding of child development and the key issues which affect the lives of young people.

For an application pack, or for an informal conversation about the role, please contact Mrs Tammie Palmer (Human Resources Officer) on 01992 706224.

Closing Date: Thursday 3rd June 2010.

Haileybury is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. Applicants for the above post must be willing to undergo child protection screening, including reference checks with previous employers and a criminal record check via the Criminal Records Bureau.

Cup finals: Joy and pain

THERE was heartbreak for Sumners FC as two of its teams were beaten in cup finals in front of more than 300 at Harlow Town's Barrows Farm ground on Sunday.

Both Sumners Cobras Under-9's and U-10's put in tremendous performances against strong teams aiming to complete doubles in their respective BAA Stansted West Essex & East Herts League Cup divisions.

The League Cup finals were watched by more players and parents from Sumners FC than any other side and the vocal support for the two teams was deafening at times but helped create a fantastic atmosphere.

Sumners chairman Andi Pearce paid tribute to his club's followers. "I just want to say thank you to those that came to the cup finals. That's the biggest gate from one [youth] club ever there."

"You are a credit to our club."

Sumners was only formed three years ago and will have 14 teams next season, ranging from U-6 to U-15.

In the finals day, first up were the U-9s.

Cobras fought back to make it 3-2 at one stage before eventually going down 6-3 against opponents New Hall Rangers.

Jordan Mason, Daniel Short and Harry Clarke were on target.

Kai Bowers was the four-goal hero for New Hall.

In a wonderful moment when he grabbed the killer fifth goal he ran towards the main stand and put a finger to his lips as if to silence the vociferous Sumners crowd.

Cameron Pike and Ryan Knowles were the other scorers.

In the other final, Mark Hall U-10 A had a real battle before overcoming Sumners Cobras to complete the double.

Mark Hall were also successful in the U-11 final. They beat Theydon Colts 2-0 with goals from Owen Goddard and A. Shipwright.

In the U-14 League Cup final, Marquis lost 0-7 to Whitewebbs. Scorers were E. Tackie (3), A. Lennon (2), A. Carter and S. Aylott.

In the U-12 final, Edenhall Reds lost 2-3 to Epping. H. Capewell, M. Davies and H. Spall scored, while N. Seisay (2) replied for Edenhall.

Champagne finish for Hall

Sumners Cobras 1, Mark Hall A 3
BAA Stansted West Essex & East Herts League Cup U-10 final

THE Mark Hall U-10 A management team unleashed four bottles of champagne on their successful side 'Formula 1 style' as they celebrated completing the league and cup double with a final victory over Sumners Cobras at Barrows Farm on Sunday.

Mark Hall had already wrapped up the BAA Stansted West Essex & East Herts League title, but were made to work extremely hard for their 3-1 victory.

Troy Mead's side may have been slightly complacent having won 5-1 in a league game between these two sides just a fortnight earlier.

But George Reynolds' Cobras defended superbly and owed much to an incredible performance from keeper Harry Burton who pulled off a series of fantastic saves.

DOUBLE VISION: The Mark Hall U-10 A team, in no particular order, Ashley Maddams, Terry Cable, Kieran Mead, Bradley Russell, Tommy Wickenden, Sonny Hellmers-Cleaverly, James Sinclair, Jimmy Montgomery and Joe Head (HSP0648821)

Mark Hall took an early lead but Cobras' pressure from a corner paid off as an own goal levelled the score.

However, Mark Hall struck twice in the second half to lift the cup.

Scorers were Tommy Wickenden (2) and Joe Head.

Mead said: "They [Sumners] gave us a good game. The boys did really well. We have only conceded seven goals this season – and four of them have been own goals."

Wickenden has hit 52 goals in league and cup games, while strike partner Joe Head has chipped in with 37. Mark Hall were unlucky not to win a prestigious tournament in Bognor Regis, West Sussex, earlier this month, involving teams from Jersey and Guernsey.

The side reached the final but lost 6-5 on penalties.

Tommy Wickenden had struck in normal time before the game went to spot-kicks.

Extra effort seals cup for Parndon

Marquis Sports 2, Parndon Royals 3 (aet)
Harlow & District League Cup final

IT needed extra-time before Ricky Goldblatt fired in the 100th-minute winner to give Parndon Royals the Harlow & District League Cup.

The score was 2-2 in Sunday's final at Bishop's Stortford Football Club when Goldblatt found himself with room in the box to fire past the impressive Marquis Sports keeper Paddy O'Brien.

Only five minutes earlier, O'Brien had made a brilliant save to keep out a penalty from Parndon skipper Richard Goodchild.

Parndon had gone ahead after 12 minutes against their premier division rivals.

Chris Bullock sent Greg Hughes into the box and the striker turned his marker before firing home from 10 yards.

Parndon doubled their

LATE WINNER: Parndon Royals celebrate with the Harlow & District League Cup (s)

lead nine minutes later.

Nathan Bethall was adjudged to have fouled Goldblatt just inside the box and Goodchild sent O'Brien the wrong way.

Marquis halved the deficit on 36 minutes when a three-man move culminated in Nathan Blake firing past Parndon keeper James May.

Marquis drew level on 73 minutes when a Gavin Cockman cross was nodded home by James Thomas.

The tie went into extra-time and, after Goodchild's penalty was saved, Goldblatt had the last say.

The final was watched by 250 people. MARQUIS SPORTS: O'Brien, Nock.

Bunyan, Lawrence, Smith, Cochrane (C), Bethall, Hewitt, Thomas, Boland, Cockman, Blake. Subs used: Davis, Bartram. Subs not used: Pratt, Mitchell, Jackson.

PARNDON ROYALS: May, Watters, Goodyear, Collins, Goodchild (C), Tobolewski, Bullock, Harvey, Hughes, Goldblatt, Wes Pullen. Subs used: Goodwin, Cooper, Robbins. Subs not used: Nock.

Double vision for New Hall

NEW Hall Rangers U-9's 6-3 League Cup victory over Sumners Cobras completed a memorable treble.

The Harlow-based side had already clinched the BAA Stansted West Essex & East Herts U-9 division after going the whole season unbeaten, winning 19 and drawing three games.

Rangers scored an incredible 113 goals and conceded just 13.

The team were formed in 2007 and are managed by

JOY: New Hall Rangers U-9 celebrate their double (s)

Wayne Palmer, who Nicklen. The club is planning to run two U-10 teams next season.

Bronze for Wafula Strike

ANNE Wafula Strike, left, gained a bronze medal in the Great Manchester Run women's wheelchair 10km event.

The Harlow athlete was third in Sunday's race in 34 mins 49secs, behind gold medalist Shelley Woods (25:15) and second-placed Hannah Cockcroft (32:35).

Her husband Norman said: "Anne was delighted at her performance because sprinting is her forte and 10 kilometres is a long way on a windy day so she was very pleased with her performance and feels strong.

"She is staying on Merseyside to train with Shelley Woods in preparation for a meeting in Knowsley this weekend where she will be competing in the 100m, 200m and 400m."

David has double vision!

DAVID Brigenshaw picked up a notable double at Harlow Rugby Club's U-17 presentation evening. He received the coveted award for Players' Player of the Year and also received the Manager's Player of the Year prize.

He was part of a successful side which came second in their Essex League, just missing out on top place on the final day by losing to Sudbury. Further awards were received by James Pedder for the Captain's Player of the Year and by Guy Foster for Most Improved Player. Coaches' forwards player of the season went to Greg Norris while Denzil Crafton picked up the coaches' back of the season.

The Clubman Award was presented to Ryan McGlone for his outstanding commitment to the Elizabeth Way club. Tony Hills' commitment to the club as youth treasurer and weekly match official was also rewarded with a special presentation.

The evening was compered by coaches John Cashman and Lee Pike with awards being presented by the youth section chairman Andy Bradnum.

More than 60 parents and volunteers attended the event.

Director of first team rugby Lee Harron and Bradnum both spoke at the evening, when they explained the club's expectations for the side when they move up to colts level next season.

GLIMPSE OF THE FUTURE: David Brigenshaw, right, collects his award from Andy Bradnum (S)

Engine trouble's costly for Bowen

SPEEDWAY is proving a costly business for Harlow racer Luke Bowen.

The Rye House Rockets rider blew his FIFTH engine of the season during last Saturday's match against Sheffield, and had to resort to using an old one "he'd kept under his bed" according to promoter Len Silver.

"It's getting very expensive for him as they're over £1,000 each," said Silver. "He had to use a Jawa engine he hasn't used in five years for his final three races against Sheffield, and he suddenly started scoring some points.

"I'm awaiting delivery of a new GM engine which I'm going to lend to him until the end of the season, hopefully he should have it ready in time for the Redcar meet."

Bowen finished with a 6+1 tally from his five rides at Hoddesdon on Saturday, but managed just two points from four races in the 51-42 victory at Redcar last Thursday.

Rockets are sitting pretty at the top of the Premier League having won all four of their opening matches and while their lofty position has delighted Silver he has cautioned supporters not to get too carried away.

"It looks good, but we can't read too much into it as we've got a long, hard slog ahead of us," Silver told the Star.

HEADING FOR A FALL: Luke Bowen in action against Sheffield

(Pic by Ian Bush)

"Having said that I'm extremely satisfied with the way the team has performed so far. We can't afford to lose any points at home, and need to be winning our matches by seven points or more.

"There are so many strong teams this season including Edinburgh, King's Lynn, Newcastle and now Redcar, it's going to make the race for the Premier League title very exciting."

Silver said everyone was "fit and well" ahead of this Saturday's home match with Redcar (7pm start), with Kurt Shields fully recovered following a heavy tumble in the 50-39 victory over Sheffield, and Kyle Hughes suffering no problems with his foot, which was badly swollen after a crash two weeks ago.

LUKE Bowen endured mixed fortunes at last Wednesday's British Championship semi-final at King's Lynn, Norfolk.

Drafted in as a late replacement, Bowen opened with three consecutive third places, but was unable to add to his total in his remaining two outings and failed to progress.

Siblings triumph in Pairs KO

Darts

GARY Barnett and Tracy Banks triumphed in the Harlow & District Darts League's Pairs Knock-out tournament.

The siblings went through the whole competition without losing a single leg and beat John Wildish & Theresa Galloway 2-0 in the final.

Forty three pairs took part in the best of three legs knock-out competition.

The majority of teams were husband and wife or brother and sister – but there was even a nan and grandson competing!

Scott Melville notched a 180 in his first-round match. He and partner Joyce reached the quarter-finals before losing 2-0 to the eventual winners.

Paul Holloway & Pam Murcutt lost 2-0 to Mick & Jackie McNally in spite of Pam notching the first 180 of the night for the women.

Results:-

Last sixteen – Roy & Carla Leftwich lost 0-2 to Dicky Foster & Jackie Smith; Damian & Tanya Green bt Brian and Janet Parker 2-1, Scott & Joyce Melville bt Ian & Ness Townsend 2-0; Tracy Banks & Gary Barnett bt Ashley Rawlinson & Sonia Green 2-0; Frankie & Sarah Byrne bt Rob Gurney & Penny Klimcke 2-0; Mick & Janette Williams lost 2-1 to John Wildish & Theresa Galloway; Steve Salter & Sharon Rout lost 2-0 to Dave Galloway & Lilly Winstone; Mick & Jackie McNally bt Paul Holloway & Pam Murcutt 2-0.

Quarter-finals – Dicky Foster & Jackie Smith bt Damian & Tanya Green 2-0; Scott & Joyce Melville lost 2-0 to Tracy Banks & Gary Barnett 2; Frankie & Sarah Byrne lost 2-0 to John Wildish & Theresa Galloway; Dave Galloway & Lilly Winstone lost 2-1 to Mick & Jackie McNally.

Semi-finals – Tracy Banks & Gary Barnett bt Dicky Foster & Jackie Smith 2-0; John Wildish & Theresa Galloway bt Mick & Jackie McNally 2-0.

Greyhound selections

NO Joke Robbie is our tipster's top selection for this Friday (May 21) at Harlow Greyhound Stadium.

It runs in the 9.15pm race.

Other selections:-

7.30pm Sebright Leah; 7.45pm Quivers Flyer; 8pm Right Boot; 8.15pm Munster Call; 8.30pm Lisleavane Model; 8.45pm Cleenas Louise; 9pm Amazon Warrior; 9.15pm No Joke Robbie (NB); 9.30pm Directors Bar (NAP); 9.45pm Rahyivira Honcho; 10pm Harlow Up; 10.15pm Inishowen Eagle.

Matt finish!

MARK Hall School student Matthew Pryor Morgan is top of the East Region for his age group after he won the 100m Year Seven boys event at the West Essex trials.

Matthew (12) completed last Wednesday's race at Mark Hall Sportcentre in 12.95 secs.

Second win for promoted Town

A GOOD performance in the field provided the springboard for Harlow Town's victory at Stansted Hall.

Town skipper Vic Goddard won the toss and decided to bowl on a grassy looking wicket.

The opening overs from Town on Saturday were wayward and Stansted Hall capitalised, scoring some quick early runs.

The home openers put on 48 before Seb Forrest fell for 17 and Paul Harvey made 49 before a good catch by Charlie Coleman off Ramya Upadhyay's bowling got rid off him.

Upadhyay bowled well to take 1-17 from 10 overs.

Town's bowling improved in the middle of the innings and the run rate was steadied.

Town's first team debutant Ronak Sorathiy

Stansted Hall 193-8, Harlow Tn 194-3

Harlow Ton won by seven wickets

Herts & Essex Cricket League, division one showed his commitment to the cause by diving into a fence to save a boundary, then flipping over head first into some nettles just to save two runs!

Quick bowler Ashley Alderson came back into the attack and bowled fast and straight to get three wickets.

Simon Rowell's cunning spinners earned him good figures of 3-29 and Hall, despite being boosted by 36 extras, were restricted to 193-8. On a small, quick outfield this was not enough.

The run chase saw Town start steadily.

Patrick Yates went for 6 when the score was 36 after being caught in the gully but Jason Gladwin and Upadhyay put on 100 for the second wicket.

Upadhyay was then comically run out going for a quick single when on 55 before Gladwin went for 64.

The required run rate crept up towards six an over but the Alderson brothers, Stuart and Ashley, both accelerated. They scored 21 not out as the visitors won with 14 balls to spare.

Other results (* denotes hosts):- Div three – Harlow Town II (185; Shaun Alderson 47) lost to *Willingle (212-4) by 27 runs; *Potter St (206-9) bt Stansted (145) by 61 runs. Div six – *Harlow Town III (96-5; Kevin Tilleard 41 not out) bt Farnham II (92; Stuart Alderson 5-30) by five wickets). Div seven – Potter St II (26) 255-9 bt *Hockerill III (9) 201-6 by 54 runs.

Wait over as Warren is new Hawks boss

>>Cont'd from back

Harlow finished bottom of Ryman League division one north.

Rookie bosses Anthony Anstead and Marvin Samuel came and went.

Samuel was fired by Cunningham after his company Platinum Sports Management took over the club in February.

Cunningham ran team affairs for a while with Warren before handing over full control to the former Hawks defender for the last four games.

These produced no wins but Cunningham is confident in Warren (31) who got the nod over a Ryman League premier manager and one from Ryman League division one north.

"We knew the state the team was in at the end and I have known Kevin since he was 15 or 16," Cunningham said.

"I am 100 per cent confident in Kevin. He shows great organisation qualities and he speaks well [to players]. He did well with the reserves when Ryan Kirby was in charge."

The club's new assistant manager is centre-half Danny Chapman while ex-Hawk Christian Wheeler has returned and will be first team coach.

"If it's necessary Danny and Kevin could play if we need them to, and Wheeler knows a lot about football in Harlow and will be good for us," Cunningham said.

Subject to appeals involving VCD Athletic and Witham Town, Harlow will be playing again in Ryman League division one north next term (see back page).

Cunningham is determined that the club aims for promotion to the Ryman premier in 2010-11 but will not be pointing a gun towards Warren's head if things do not go according to plan.

"I want us to be challenging for promotion. We want to see that the team is progressing," he said.

"I was given time when I was manager by Steve Ray and there will be no pressure on Kevin to get immediately promoted. We want to see things done in the correct way."

Big loss for Harlow SC

HARLOW'S first team suffered a crushing 3-0 defeat against a very strong Harpenden side in division two of the Herts Squash League.

First string Dave Gear managed to compete very well in a close fought first set before going down 14-16.

Thereafter, his opponent piled on the pressure and comfortably won the next two sets 15-7, 15-7 for a 3-0 win.

Second string Dan Collison was no match for his opponent and lost 8-15, 5-15, 5-15.

Third string Andy Davis went down 10-15, 10-15, 10-15.

Harlow's second team were beaten 2-1 at home to Nuffield Health in division four.

First string Vinh Tram lost 16-18, 8-15, 12-15. Second string Peter Izatt won 15-13, 4-15, 15-10, 7-15, 15-11, while third string Keeley Peacock lost 14-16, 11-15, 13-15.

Rookie boss Kevin targets promotion

KEVIN Warren was thrilled at being given the chance to manage Harlow Town and bring some much needed success to the Barrows Farm club.

Warren (31) heard on Monday that he was being given the first team job. He had been caretaker boss at the end of last season.

He said: "I was ecstatic when I heard the news and over the moon. I have wanted to be a first team manager."

Harlow are set to play in Ryman League division one north next season after VCD Athletic were thrown out of the League by the FA. The Crayford side were unable to meet ground requirements for Step 4 of the non-League pyramid.

This is subject to an appeal but Warren is confident Harlow will be in the Ryman League next term and is aiming for promotion.

"The main aim next season will be promotion. If you did not have that aim you might as well not start and I want us to play entertaining football and put a smile on supporters' faces," he said.

"The leagues have been released and we have a got a reprieve which is very good. The FA does not usually go back on their word."

Player-boss Warren, who can slot in at the back or in midfield, will keep himself fit but does not aim to play except in an emergency.

He said that his assistant will be Hawks centre-half Danny Chapman and he will get himself fit to be available for selection.

Chapman returned to the club in the spring having quit when Ryan Kirby was sacked as manager in December 2008.

"Danny has the club at heart and is a passionate bloke and he will help a lot with the input in defence," Warren said.

However, Warren expects more of a playing role for midfielder Christian Wheeler who has been named as first team coach.

"Christian knows a lot about football in Harlow and has had success with Aveley."

The new Hawks boss does not expect many from last year's squad to remain at the club.

He said "If you come bottom in a league you do not expect many players to stay on for next season."

"I have spoken to Mark Taylor (utility player), James Hasell (goalkeeper) and Shaun Gliddon (midfielder) and they are all happy to come back."

He added: "Players I am looking at coming in are those who have had success at Ryman one level or Ryman premier level."

"We are in negotiation with players. I am looking for two centre-halves, two central midfielders and two strikers and then I will take it from there."

Southend United FC link-up for Burnt Mill School

AN exciting new project will provide youngsters from Harlow with a route into professional football.

Burnt Mill School has linked up with Southend United Football Club to establish a school of excellence.

The Shrimpers, who will play in Coca-Cola League Two next term after being relegated from League One at the end of the 2009-10 season, will take on the talented young footballers aged 10-13 and offer them academy coaching.

The ultimate aim of the academy is to find the stars of the future for the seashiders and sign them on school boy forms for Southend United.

Southend's head of youth is Ricky Duncan who lives in Harlow and is a much respected coach within the game.

A spokesman for Burnt Mill said: "Both the school and Southend United Football Club have worked hard to put this together.

"We are sincerely hoping that many young players from all of the primary and secondary schools in Harlow will have an opportunity to access a place at a Football League club."

The town has long been a breeding ground for players who have gone into the professional ranks.

The most famous is Burnt Mill old boy Glenn Hoddle.

Former Mark Hall School student and ex-England international right-back Luke Young currently plays for Aston Villa after spells at Spurs and Middlesbrough.

Darren Ambrose, who was at Passmore's School, now plays for Crystal Palace.

Ex-St Mark's pupil Danny Green, who still lives in Harlow, will play at Wembley on Sunday May 30 for his Dagenham & Redbridge side in the Coca-Cola League Two play-off final.

Wait over as Warren is new boss

KEVIN Warren's appointment as Harlow Town's manager comes with strong blessing from the club co-owner Tommy Cunningham. Warren was appointed caretaker boss near the end of last season, which proved a turbulent one for the Barrows Farm club.

Ryman reprieve

Hawks handed lifeline as VCD are thrown out

By DAVID RIMMER
david.rimmer@hertsessexnews.co.uk

THE Hawks could be set to benefit from a massive lifeline after they were named as one of the 22 teams for next season's Ryman League division one north.

Harlow Town FC looked as though they would be relegated into the Essex Senior League after finishing bottom in division one north (step four of the non-League pyramid) last term.

However, the combination of one team being thrown out of the Ryman League and another being refused promotion, has handed the Barrows Farm club a huge tonic.

VCD Athletic failed to meet the Ryman League's ground criteria but the Hawks' place is subject to an appeal from the London club.

Eastern Counties League outfit Needham Market are set to replace VCD.

HOPE: Hawks co-owner Tommy Cunningham (HSP0634459)

The situation has been further complicated by Essex Senior League club Witham Town having their application to go into Ryman League division one north for 2010-11 rebuffed by the FA.

Essex League champions Stansted chose not to apply and Witham should have gone up after finishing second.

Witham have instructed a solicitor to fight their case.

If successful, Harlow could be thrown out still as they finished bottom.

Under the non-League pyramid rules, only a specific number of teams are permitted promotion to Step 4 although two teams which finished second in step five last term (Wimborne Town in the Sydenham Wessex League premier division and Rainworth Minders Welfare in the Koolport Northern Counties East League premier division) have been promoted.

Hawks co-owner Tommy Cunningham is thrilled at the prospect of a reprieve.

"It's a massive boost for us. I am delighted. The club needs a bit of good fortune," he said.

"The people who have worked hard for the club and the supporters deserve it more than anything. It is not their fault what has happened."

Harlow should be able to attract better quality players in the Ryman League.

"We hope to get in a number of players. We want to go for promotion," added Cunningham.

A second successive relegation - particularly on the back of a drop from the Ryman premier division at the end of the 2008-09 season - would have been harsh on the Essex club who suffered huge financial problems until Platinum Sports Management completed their take over in February.

Rampant Harlow look for up Hill start

HARLOW will approach their clash at Buckhurst Hill this Saturday in good heart.

Both teams are unbeaten but Harlow have shown real resolve and depth in their batting and bowling in both league wins this season and hope to avenge their Essex League Cup defeat to Buckhurst 19 days ago.

Harlow skipper Jason McNally said: "Buckhurst Hill is going to be one of our toughest games this year. We have not beaten them but the way we have been playing it is going to take something special to take it away from us."

"Our batting has been fantastic. Ahmed Khawaja is a class player and Rehman Ahmed is seeing the ball like a football.

"Our bowling and fielding has been spot on. We have a fantastic chance of doing it [beating Buckhurst Hill]."

Five days ago Harlow batted first at Wickford who were relegated from division one last season.

Nino Calvino battled hard against the new ball before being trapped lbw by Daniel Pryke for 11 to leave the visitors on 37-1.

Khawaja joined Ahmed and the pair punished the bad ball and ran between the wickets well, adding 96 for the second wicket.

Ahmed fell for 55 before Khawaja went on to make 66.

With skipper McNally making a quickfire 38 and Lee Jessey chipping in with a swift 26, Harlow pushed on to a competitive 237 all out.

Wickford's first-wicket partnership added 45 before McNally had opposite number Chirag Desai caught for 22.

Khawaja then turned the match Harlow's way in a lethal spell, trapping Tanvir Alam lbw for 3, bowling opener Ross Daynes for 23 and then bowling Lee Stace for 0 as the hosts slipped to 64-4.

However, Danny Pryke staged a middle-order fightback with his positive cricket forcing the return of McNally from the clubhouse end.

He immediately struck as Pryke played onto his stumps for 32.

Spin king Khawaja was then re-introduced to the attack.

He finished the job he started, snaring Wickford's number 11 Roche who was stumped by James Butler.

Khawaja ended up with figures of 6-23.

McNally said: "I thought we had got 15 or 20 too few."

"We only had one spinner. He [Ahmed] did very well and the seamers worked hard around him. It was just a matter of time before they got out."

Wicket-keeper Butler added: "The two Ahmeds have been absolutely outstanding for us so far. I can't remember the last time we started the season in such confident batting form."
